

Mayor and City Council of

Brunswick, Georgia

Proclamation

Whereas, Manufacturing Appreciation Week (MAW) was developed by the Technical College System of Georgia and the Georgia Department of Economic Development. Manufacturing Appreciation Week is being celebrated April 14 – 18, 2014; and

Whereas, nearly 9500 manufacturing facilities are located in Georgia providing jobs for approximately 350,000 Georgians. Georgia's manufacturing operations such as transportation equipment, aerospace, computers and electronics, food, paper, metal fabrication, textiles and plastics create state wealth by adding value to raw materials through the application of people skills and investment in tools, technology and talent; and

Whereas, the City of Brunswick's manufacturers provide opportunities for employment, educational partnerships, demonstrate a commitment to workforce excellence, a high degree of corporate responsibility, and engage in community involvement efforts, volunteer programs and civic involvement; and

Whereas, we recognize and value the many contributions of all manufacturers in the City of Brunswick for the key role they play in promoting and ensuring a brighter and stronger future for Glynn County, the City of Brunswick and the State of Georgia.

Now therefore I, Cornell L. Harvey, Mayor of the City of Brunswick, along with my fellow Commissioners do hereby designated the week of April 14 – 18, 2014 as "Manufacturing Appreciation Week", the 20th annual celebration to acknowledge the critical and fundamental importance to the prosperity of our economy in the City of Brunswick and Glynn County.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused this seal to be affixed
